Age: 6-14

The film opens on isolated Candlestick Island which is little more than the remains of an immense skyscraper. Here a small, close knit community provides a home for Mangchi a rambunctious pre-adolescent boy who yearns to discover the world beyond his isolated enclave. The orphan enjoys the loving care of his wise grandfather who is training him the mystical art of the Great Echo, a concentration of all of one's energy into a single all-power force to ward off evil and enemy attacks.

One day a small plane carrying the teen-aged Prince Polar who is being pursued by the soldiers of the treacherous General Moonk, crashes onto Candlestick Island. Mangchi makes daring rescue on his trademark vehicle. The two set off on a boisterous adventure involving a treasure of lost gold, a greedy bandit chief, the villainous Moonk and an all-powerful crystal.
