

Mahmoud Ahmed Salem

Tribute to The Egyptian Writer

- * Born on the 20th of March 1929
- * Studied in the Faculty of Law and the High Institute of Social Services
- * Holds a diploma from the High Institute of Cinema
- * Editor-in-Chief of "Bena El-Wetan" magazine, Chief Editor of "Radio and Television" magazine.
- * Published a series of important books such as: "Islamic Encyclopedia for beginners", "4-part Arabic Tales", "Adventurous Five series", "Small Mystery", "Short Exotic Stories" and "Towards 50 short stories for children".
- * In the field of cinema and television he worked on 30 episodes of the 'Adventurous Five and in other series' such as "The Happiest Man in the world".