

Faith Isiakpere

Member of Jury for Animation and T.V. Programs Board Manager Children Fundation for Africa

South Africa

A graduate of the West Surrey College of Art and Design with a bachelor degree in Film and Television Production in 1978, Isiakpere worked internationally for many broadcasters including Thames TV, Channel 4, Central TV and was also Senior Producer for the British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC). His notable achievements include a six-part documentary titled "Black Britain" which takes a look at the black immigrant population. He produced and directed many documentaries, dramas, music videos and a book on the British band UB40. He has also worked with Stevie Wonder, Hugh Masekela, Miriam Makeba, President Mandela and the late Helen Joseh.

Isiakpere is also a board member of the Children and Broadcasting Foundation for Africa and a former member of the South African Music Promoters Association. He is also the Director of Programs and Head of Content for the Minaj Group which includes Terrestrial Television, Satellite Network which is the only African satellite network that broadcasts into Europe.

He is also a life member of the British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA) as well as other major television networks both in Europe and the US .