

Bernd Sahling

Member of Jury for Long and Short Feature Films Director

Germany

Born in 1961 in Naumberg in East Germany, Sahling worked as a casting and assistant director for several children's movies for the DEFA-Studio in Potsdam-Babelsberg after which he obtained a diploma in film and video directing. Between 1995 and 1996 he became a DAAD scholarship holder and independent student at the Columbia College with a major in screenwriting. Among the films he directed were "Song for Anne" in 1985, "Everything Gets Well" in 1990 and "Without an End" in 1993.